“To protect this country from the threat of terrorists, ANYONE caught acting against the United States government in any suspicious way will be arrested and immediately executed!”
- President Trump
France 1791-1792
- Other Euro. countries fearful of a rev. in France
  - will it inspire a rev. in those nation?
- Austria & Prussia sign a Treaty of Pillnitz
  - if France attacks it’s King - Prussia & Austria will attack
  - France declares war on them 1st

1792
- Another New French Gov’t
  - The National Convention
    - made up of bourgeoisie
    - Upper - Radical Jacobins
  - 3rd Estate - get rid of Const. 1791
Video Task

- Answer the questions in Handout B based on the video.

French Revolution - The execution of Louis XVI.mp4
1793
- Use of guillotine against non-supporters of Rev.
- Radicals execute King
- Found guilty of treason

Reign of Terror begins after execution of King
- Led by Robespierre
Group Task

Handouts E, F, & G

• Read the document assigned to your group.

• Answer the questions on the handout
1. According to the pie chart to the left, which classes were executed most frequently?

2. What is ironic about who the Committee of Public Safety chose to execute?

3. How might these executions have impacted morale in France?

- Between 26,000 and 50,000 people executed for being disloyal to the radical government.

1793-1795
The image to the left is an engraving from France (1793). The text at the bottom of the engraving reads (translated): “Robespierre, after having all the French guillotined, beheads the executioner with his own hand.”